

Mr. Bernard D. Dusenberry

October 6, 1921 - August 4, 2014

On Monday, August 4, 2014, Bernard D. Dusenberry, age 92, resident of Sherwood Oaks, Cranberry, formerly of McCandless. Beloved husband of the late Eleanor E. Dusenberry; father of Denee (Todd) Stevenson, of Big Beaver, Debra D. (late Roland) Koll, of Bailey, CO, Daryl (Jeff) Rahenkamp, of McCandless, and Diane (Mark) Welling, of Kennewick, WA; grandfather of Ann, Ellen, Aaron, Evan, and Elainna; great grandfather of William. Services private. Mr. Dusenberry was a 1943 graduate of Allegheny College and a member Phi Delta Theta Fraternity. During WWII, while stationed in India, he served in the USAAF as a 1st Lieutenant Burma Hump Pilot, crossing over the Himalayas to drop supplies in China and South Asia. He was awarded 2 Distinguished Flying Crosses and the China War Memorial Badge with 5 battle stars. He continued flying with the Condor Flying Club, Zelienople until he was 80 yrs. old. Mr. Dusenberry was a CPA and partner at Main, Hurdman & Cranston, now KPMG. A former trustee & auditor at Northmont U.P. Church, he was also a member of the Pittsburgh Rotary Club, Wildwood Country Club, and the Duquesne Club. He was an avid reader and world traveler. The family thanks the staff of Sherwood Oaks and Celtic Hospice for their compassionate care. Memorial donations may be made to North Hills Community Outreach or a charity of your choice.