Tribute Wall

“ I was a classmate of Kitty at both St. Brendan's and St. Thomas. I moved back to Pittsburgh with Alcoa and went into the Mellon Bank in the North Hills and there was Kitty. I saw her there frequently. Our last visit was at a H.S. Reunion. She was always a good friend and for some reason liked me as a friend. I just sent her a card at Trinity to cheer her up. I hope that she got it in time.

“ To Kitty's family, I was a classmate of Kitty's at St. Thomas' in Braddock. Over the years, we kept in touch through letters and then the class reunions. Kitty was the true picture of a good Christian person and she had such a sweet nature and a wonderful gift for laughter. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Rita Venice, Sun City, AZ
