“ Our deepest sympathy to the Martin Family. Charles was a wonderful man that we had the privilege of knowing through scouting. He has touched so many people in his lifetime and there will be many fond memories of him for many years to come. May your family find peace and comfort remembering all the happy times you had with Charles. Karen and Greg Zeitler, The "Great" Seneca District and Boy Scout Troop 377.

My thoughts and prayers go out to the Martin family. Growing up as neighbors I will always remember sitting under the apple trees with the big stainless bowls shucking peas and lima beans and having fun with all of us kids. He grew the world's best garden! I love these pictures, great memories!!!!

Our deepest sympathy to the Martin Family. Really enjoyed this tribute to Mr. Martin. Seeing photos from his past gave us a brief glimpse into his life and more of an understanding of what kind of a man he was. I really thought he would make it to the Smucker's jar. Howard and Anna Bender
