

Mr. Charles J. Myron

November 12, 1931 - August 2, 2014

Charles J Myron, 82, of Oil City and Pittsburgh Pennsylvania passed away on August 2, 2014.

A loving father, tremendous friend and loyal companion, he will be missed by all. Born and raised in Mt. Oliver, Chuck served as a code-breaker in the Army during the Korean war after which he attended the University of Pittsburgh and graduated with a degree in business. After moving to Oil City to continue his successful banking career, he became a vocal champion for the Oil City and Pittsburgh region and maintained a lifelong appreciation for his Western Pennsylvania heritage. Chuck was a terrific sports enthusiast and supporter holding season tickets for Pitt Basketball, Pitt Football, the Pittsburgh Steelers and the Pittsburgh Pirates. Other interests and areas of support included The Pittsburgh Cultural Trust, Drake Well, Pittsburgh Symphony, The History Center, Carnegie Museum, The Duquesne

Incline, Phipps Conservatory, The Western Pennsylvania Conservancy and Fallingwater. Chuck is survived by his gratefully devoted son Mark, his daughter-in-law Josepha whom he adored, his two Granddaughters Alexandra and Anastasia who he cherished, and his loving partner in life Laurie Stewart. His legacy of love, kindness, generosity, humility and friendship will assuredly survive his physical presence.

Services will be held at Simons Funeral Home at 7720 Perry Hwy,

Pittsburgh, Pa 15237. 412-367-3100. Viewing will start at 9:30 am Saturday August 9, 2014 with a service at 11 am followed by a burial at St. John Vianney Cemetery, 920 Brownsville Road, Pittsburgh PA 15210. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to either the Myron Family Scholarship Fund at The University of Pittsburgh or an Alzheimer's Research foundation of your choice.
