Mom was a woman of faith and firm conviction that built a strong foundation for all her family. We have been fully loved and inspired by her love for us and her zeal for life. If you knew her, you were touched by her passion for truth and probably have a book, tape or CD that she thought would be helpful. She encouraged us to be world changers and was an avid prayer warrior. In her final letter to us she wrote “and above all don’t fret!!! Love each other... See you at the house!!!”, and we will!

Services are private at this time but a celebration of her life will be held in the fall where all will be welcome.

“ I was Doris's hairdresser for years and we had a good relationship, did her mom's hair also when she was no longer able to come to the shop. They were two beautiful people and Doris and I had a lot in common. She collected dolls and had a doll house. Also had a love of flowers.
