“ I cannot believe that this gentlest of souls is gone. In his way he was an anchor, reminding us that simplicity and unquestioned love was there, and asking nothing in return. Doug loved to laugh and hear others laugh, sometimes chortling at a thing he saw that might have escaped the rest of us. God said "Send for Doug. He's suffered enough." Our thoughts, prayers, and love are with you always, little friend. Say hey to Bwum and Papa.

“ My deepest condolences to the family for this tremendous loss. May the words found at Isaiah 26:19 bring you comfort in knowing that you will one day see Doug again.

Isaiah 26:19 "Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, You residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life"

“ I was thankful to be at Dougies' 50th birthday party and see the joy that was received from Dougie by everyone in the family. It was a wonderful party. I think that Dougies' community of caretakers, friends and families is truly a showing of the good in our hearts.

A little bit into the party, as everyone was having a great time, (and it got noisy) Dougie wanted to go home. He kept pointing to the door. After a while, Uncle Frank picked Dougie up and took him on his lap, hugging and holding Dougie who was reciprocating with love.

In that moment I saw something awesome. Though Dougie was unable to express his emotions in many ways, he showed the magnificent!

Dougie was given the gift of love.

He will be missed!

“ Frank and family, I was saddened this morning upon reading about Doug. I can't imagine your sadness. What great parents you were to him.

God will reward you tenfold for your perseverance.
