“ Randa and family,
Our deepest sympathy to each of you during this difficult time. You are in our thoughts and prayers. The memories you have made over the years will be the legacy Joe has left for each of you. You are a beautiful family and the Lord will take your hand and guide you through the days to come. Joe is at peace and with the angels!

“ My deepest condolences to the Triggs family for this tremendous loss. May the words found at Isaiah 26:19 bring you comfort in knowing that you will one day see Joe again.

Isaiah 26:19 "Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, You residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life"

“ I am praying for Randa who will miss sharing with the love of her life. I will pray for all of you who had to watch Joe die this way. I am sure he is at peace and free to sail through heaven's waters looking down on each and every one of you.

“ Joe's son Kevin and I have been friends for 20 years. The summers we spent together in Avalon were better than any of you can imagine, and we only had that life because of Joe. He taught me how to waterski, brought me sailing on the Laura B, and looked the other way more than once when we had a few underage beers. By any standard he was a good man. He will be missed by all. Love, Patrick Glynn

“ Joe was such a great friend and will be dearly missed. I remember Joe came out to Montana in September 2015. We spent a week together (just the two of us) fly fishing the Yellowstone, Madison and Gallatin Rivers. He introduced me to Depue Spring Creek in Paradise Valley just south of Livingston. We had a great time together, probably the best float ever on the Madison. I have nothing but fond memories of my good buddy. Sorry I can't make it to the service. Best regards to everyone, Steve Daily
