“ Jim, BJ, and Jil: Aunt Lil was truly a woman of faith. It was a blessing for me to be at her side for her last 6 days on this earth. I don't think I will ever be able to forget the feel of her gripping my hand tighter and tighter on Saturday night, April 13 and the wide blink she gave when I asked her if she wanted me to stay the night - it was a sight I will never forget. I kept telling her it was ok to go and that Uncle George's arms were getting tired of being outstretched waiting for her to embrace him. I know she heard every word said until the very end. It was my privilege to be there holding her hand all those days - a promise I made to her when she got sick, My deepest sympathy.
