I've always had a soft spot in my heart for her, she was always there for Pat ,Kim and I .I will remember all the funny things Aunt Margie would say or do. I will truly miss her . I guess her school crossing days dubbed off on me.I've been a crossing guard for almost twenty years.Take care I'll miss her.*

“ Dear Family of Margaret Wagner -

Just a few weeks ago when I visited with Aunt Margie we both were reminiscing and laughing heartily over good times... Marge always kept her focus on the good times. I will miss that sense of fun and her fashion sense and just her being her – a fascinating person with an ever-present, bright twinkle in her eyes.

It's my belief that our family members and our other loved ones who have gone before us are together on the other side, making God smile at their strength, mirth and wit.

You are in my thoughts and prayers as you grieve and will continue as time allows happy memories to soothe your heartache.

*Bless you,
Maureen O'Connor*
