

Paul J. Marks

May 5, 1922 - December 13, 2019

Paul J. Marks, 97, born May 5, 1922 to Aloysius and Amelia Marks, died peacefully in Scarborough Maine Veterans Home on December 13, 2019. Formerly of Pittsburgh, PA and Wilmington, NC, Paul was the loving husband of the late Kathleen C. (Kitty Devereaux) for 60 years. Father to David (Debbie) Marks of Greentown, PA, Edward (Kitty) Marks of Scarborough, ME, and Sharon (David) Bundick of Wilmington, NC.

Paul was Grandfather to Matthew (Sandi) Marks, Michael (Liz) Marks And Great Grandfather to Abby, Aidan, David and Daniel Marks. Brother to the late Charlotte, John, William, George, Albert, Harry, and Bobby. Survived by many close nieces and nephews.

Paul was born and raised in the Brookline section of Pittsburgh. He joined the U.S. Navy and served on a submarine chaser during WWII. He was involved in theatre at Iwo Jima and Okinawa. He then spent over 30 years as a printer at The Pittsburgh Press, and The Post-Gazette.

We believe Dad died of old age, but not before he served his country, married a great lady, raised a family, worked hard his whole life, and knew how to enjoy retirement all the way to the end. Yes, he was part of the Greatest Generation!

“ Very few people had the privilege of calling Mr. & Mrs. Marks their neighbor. Growing up In Allison Park PA, they were more than just the couple across the street. They became my sister and I third set of grandparents. Mr. Marks was always kind, loving, and understanding. He would allow us to stay at his house while waiting for our parents after school and would always lend a hand when we needed one. He was also the first grown man to trust me with a riding lawnmower and I believed could hold the record for making a cigar last the longest. Mr. Marks was the definition of a good neighbor and will be greatly missed, I will always be grateful for the opportunity to grow up around him.

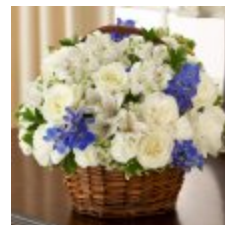

Love always,

Your neighbor Andrew Spirk
