Music was one of Ralph's loves having played in the Etna High School band while playing professionally in the Chuck Marlin Big Band around Pgh. He continued to play in the Army Bands.

He served in the US Army Air Corps during WW II, graduated from the University of Pgh in 1950 with an EBS degree and membership in the honor society Omicron Delta Gamma (Artus). He spent 40 years in the food business, first as the regional manager of a national food manufacturer and then as a VP & Partner in a local food brokerage firm. He & Grace loved traveling, visiting much of the world cruising and exploring by land. He was active in the Memorial Park Presbyterian Church, first as an original member of the Christian Singles Ministry, an Elder, Northern area director in the Billy Graham Crusade of 1993, director of Evangelism Explosion & Member of the Intercessory prayer group. Ralph loved his family but Christ was his first love. In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to Memorial Park Presbyterian Church.
