“ There are so many good times to remember with my cousin Bobby, my Aunt June, and my Uncle Bob Mill (and Richard and Michele of course). I keep them all close to my heart. I remember all the fun parties our parents had that usually included the Flahertys, the Bowmans, the Hastings (Cousins Danny, Chris, Aunt Shirley and Uncle Huss) and that kid who lived across the alley from Bobby that played the accordion. Sometimes the party was at the Mayfield Tavern but usually it was at the Mill's huge house across from Riverview Park. Bobby played football for Annunciation. I believe he was the fullback. Although he was only 3 years older than me, it seemed like he was bigger than life in his shoulder pads, cleats and helmet. Uncle Bob and Uncle Huss had a $20.00 bill they had torn in half with each of them keeping a half. It had something to do with Annunciation winning or losing and I remember watching them fiddle with that twenty. These were all good people from Pittsburgh's North Side. Rest easy Fat Man, you will be missed. Thanks you for always being nice to me and letting Danny and me hang with you older guys.
