“ He was a wonderful man, and I was so lucky to have him as my friend and neighbor for so many years. His love of life, caring, and optimistic attitude were an inspiration I will carry with me always. I am sure he is enjoying a wonderful reunion with his lovely wife.

“ Thank you all who came to the Funeral home and the beautiful service at Northmont Church honoring my Dad. I couldn't be more proud of my family and friends. My dad loved you all so much. My heart is hurting but the support has been wonderful from all. Thank you all who sent me beautiful cards and who kept me and my family in your prayers. I think your prayers are working as I am also at peace because my dad is seeing Jesus on his birthday. I will miss him on Christmas but he is at the best celebration anyone could have. He is my angel and is dancing with my Mom and all his loved ones now.
