“ *Dear Grandma,
Thank you for spending time and sharing memories and laughter with me. Also, thank you for encouraging me to follow Jesus with all my heart and soul. I appreciate how you always had fun and joked around with all of us, told us childhood stories and shared your testimonies. Thank you for helping me study for my Social Studies test, I got 100% because of you. I hope you have fun teaching everyone in heaven how to do Punnet Squares too ;) I'll miss you like crazy and I'll look forward seeing you in heaven.
Love,
your Granddaughter,
Abigail a.k.a. Glory*

“ *Mother sweet Mother,
I will miss you more than words could say. My thoughts were that i was going to see you alot more, but God has other plans for you. You are in a wonderful place now being taken care of by Jesus/ God. No more physical or mental suffering. I am so happy for you. You have helped me in soooo many ways. Thank you for helping instill a God fearing attitude in me. Thank you for your love and care for me throughout the years. Your hand touching my hand comforted me today as it did when i was a child. Your laughter was(is) infectious and you sang(sing) like an angel. No matter what it was or who it was, you always had time to talk and pray with them. Truly, you were a blessing from God. I will cherish every moment i had with you. I always looked forward to your loving greeting when i walked through your door when visiting in Georgia. I long for the day to see you in heaven greeting me with your sweet smile. Such a sweet kind spirit..... :-)*
Sincere Love,
Donnie

“ Dear Grandma,
Thank you so much for always being there to spend time with me, play games with me, and while you stayed at our house, help me with homework. I will miss your wonderful stories and thoughtful time and words you gave me. I will also miss the wonderful encouragement to follow Jesus more, and your own amazing testimonies. Thank you again for all your love and I will see you again one day and I look forward to it!
Love,
Your Granddaughter,

“ Dear Mum,
Thank you for being the best mother-in-law I could have had. You shared love, laughter and especially a zeal for others to know Jesus as you did so personally. I am glad for all of the years I have known you, especially this last month when you moved back to Pittsburgh and we got to spend time reading God's Word & praying together over tea. I came to appreciate who you are more through those times. You are kind, yet firm in the love of the Lord. Steve, the kids & I will continue to laugh about your funny stories & the robust chuckle you had. Your prayers over your family were made evident. I will miss you much, but look forward to seeing you in heaven where you are now face to face with Jesus who has invited you in saying, "Well done good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of the Lord". See you then.
Love,
Crystal

“ *Mom,
We will miss your uncontrollable laugh and your ever encouraging spirit! Thanks for pointing me to Jesus and sharing your life with me. Thanks for your faithfulness and doing your best in the good times and struggles. I will miss you much, but I know our reunion will be wonderful "when we all get to heaven". I look forward to your great big hug once again where you can "squish my guts"!
Love you lots,
Steve*

“ Dear Mum,
Thank you so much for all the laughter and stories you shared with me. Your legacy will be the kindness and love that you shared with so many and that you gave your family Jesus. That is what we truly need. Thank you for giving us what truly lasts forever. I love you and I will miss you. Have a great time in Heaven!
Love,
Virginia
