

Violet G. Bollinger

December 13, 1926 - October 18, 2017

On Wednesday, October 18, 2017, with her family at her side, after 90 glorious years on this earth, Violet Galbreath Bollinger, beloved wife of the late Charles T. Bollinger, passed peacefully into the arms of the angels, on her long-anticipated journey home to her savior. Vi was the devoted mother to Charles (Denise) Bollinger of Ellwood City, Robert (Ellen) Bollinger of Gibsonia, Judy (Jim) Donatelli of South Park, and Lynda (Dean) Brown of Pottstown, PA. She was the cherished grandmother of Steven, Eric, and Jen Bollinger, Kirk and Joel Brown, Tony and Andy Donatelli, and Matthew and David Bollinger.

Vi is survived by one sister-in-law, Frances Pletcher of Shaler and brother-in-law, John Bollinger of FI, many nieces, nephews, cousins, dear friends and neighbors who will always remember her genuine kindness, helpful hints, shared recipes, telephone calls, and loving support.

Vi was an active supporter of Grace Church, the McKnight Women's Club, and her community.

Preceded in death by her parents, husband and her sister, Mary Jane Chess, and step siblings, Sally Arthur and Harry Ulrich.

The family is grateful for the support and loving care of the Allegheny Health Network Hospice.

Viewing will be on Friday, October 20, 2-4 & 7-9 PM at Simons Funeral Home, Inc. 7720 Perry Highway. Funeral services will be Saturday 10:30 AM at Grace Church, 319 W. Sycamore St., Mt Washington, 15221.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Grace Church, 319 W. Sycamore St. Pittsburgh, PA 15211.
